ADVANCED BATCHES

DURATION 12-24 MONTHS

- PHYSICAL TRAINING: Players work and improve on their overall physical aspects which includes strength, agility, endurance, coordination and explosive strength training.
- TACTICAL TRAINING: Players have different roles and responsibilities based on the situation their team is in, hence to improve their game understanding we take tactical sessions, where they will be put in attacking, defending and transition situations.
- INTRODUCTION TO COMPETITIVE MATCHES & LEAGUES: The best form of learning happens when players take part in a match and competition. We make sure our teams get regular match exposure to rise to the top.

Players develop the understanding of how to play together as a team and will get exposure to competitive matches.

DURATION 12-24 MONTHS

- ADVANCED PHYSICAL TRAINING : Players are given specific physical training that focus on a particular aspect once a week. The training will help them achieve physical traits that are required for a player competing at that age group. Several tests are carried out to measure these aspects.
- ADVANCED TACTICAL TRAINING : The tactical training for these set of players are done in the most realistic manner where they will be exposed to match-like situations. Principles of Attacking, Defending, and Transitions are taught in 11-a-side pitches giving these players better ideas.
- REGULAR PARTICIPATION IN COMPETITIVE MATCHES LEAGUES
These players are trained to participate in the best competitions in the state/Country and will always get match exposure against players of similar or higher standards.
- NUTRITIONAL GUIDANCE : Having a good diet plan is as important as having a good training plan, with the help of our nutritional expert we provide customized diet plans for each player.
- MENTAL PROGRAMMING : Is very important for a player who wants to reach the highest level. Our coaches always help players set team goals and individual goals in order to push our players in the right direction. We always make sure our players are challenged in the right amount and that they achieve their goals,

These squads compete in premier leagues and tournaments and players get an opportunity to be scouted and selected by ISL clubs.
